1.0 Overview

The Housing Element is a mandatory element of the Mt. Shasta General Plan. State law establishes that each city accommodate its fair share of affordable housing as an approach to distributing housing needs throughout the State. State Housing Element law also recognizes that in order for the private sector to address housing needs and demand, local governments must adopt land-use plans and implementing regulations that provide opportunities for, and do not unduly constrain, housing development by the private sector. Unique from other general plan elements, State law requires local governments update their housing element every eight years.

Housing Elements are also subject to detailed statutory requirements. Unlike other general plan elements, Housing Elements are subject to review and approval (referred to as “certification”) by the State. The California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) reviews every local government’s Housing Element and determines whether it complies with State law. Because the Housing Element is part of the City’s General Plan, obtaining housing element approval from HCD is critical for maintaining the City’s General Plan compliance. Moreover, there are State funding programs for transportation, infrastructure, and housing that require (or consider) a local jurisdiction’s compliance with Housing Element Law. Figure 1 below illustrates the process of Housing Element preparation and adoption and HCD’s role in this process.

The Housing Element is a policy document that identifies Mt. Shasta existing and future housing needs and establishes proposed actions to facilitate the provision of housing to meet those needs for all income levels. The Housing Element’s policies and programs in Chapter 2 reflect a combination of the concerns of the local Mt. Shasta community along with new State housing mandates. The purpose of the Housing Element is to establish specific goals and policies relative to the provision of housing, and to adopt a program to accomplish the City’s housing goals and policies. In addition, the Element identifies and analyzes housing needs and resources and constraints to meeting those needs.

This is Mt. Shasta's sixth Housing Element and it plans for the years 2023-2031. State law (Government Code Sections 65580 through 65589) mandates the contents of the Housing Element. By law, the Housing Element must contain all of the following:

- An analysis of housing needs of the city's population and to adequately plan to meet the existing and projected housing needs, including the jurisdiction's share of the regional housing needs allocation (RHNA).
- An inventory of land suitable for residential development, including vacant sites and sites having the potential for redevelopment.
- An analysis of housing constraints that impact housing production that identifies and analyzes potential and actual governmental constraints to the maintenance, improvement, or development of housing for all income levels, including housing for people with disabilities.
- Programs that implement the city's housing policies. Each jurisdiction must identify specific programs in its housing element that will allow it to implement the stated policies, and achieve the stated goals and objectives.
- An analysis of the jurisdiction's progress to implement the housing programs of the previous housing element, and the effectiveness of the programs.
- Actions that meaningfully promote and further fair housing opportunities in the community.

The Housing Element must also identify adequate residential sites available for a variety of housing types for all income levels; assist in developing adequate housing to meet the needs of very low-, low-, and moderate-income households; address governmental constraints to housing maintenance, improvement, and development; address the conservation of the existing affordable housing stock, and how the condition of the existing housing stock in need of improvement will be achieved; and promote housing opportunities for all persons.

Even though the focus of the Housing Element is on lower- and moderate-income households, the Element must address the housing needs and policy issues for the entire community and be consistent with the adopted policies of the rest of the General Plan.

2.0 Regulatory Context

Since Mt. Shasta's 5th cycle Housing Element was adopted in 2014, a significant number of housing laws have been enacted. These new housing laws mandate new analyses or programs in each Housing Element and apply to the 2023-2031 Mt. Shasta Housing Element update. Wherever available, City staff has consulted the HCD guidance memos to prepare this Housing Element. These housing and Housing Element new laws include, but are not limited to:

- Accessory Dwelling Units (AB 3182, AB 671, AB 68, AB 587, AB 670, AB 881, SB 13) – These new laws limit local jurisdictions' ability to restrict the development of accessory dwelling units (ADU) in a variety of ways and mandate streamlined, ministerial approval of ADUs within defined conditions. For the purpose of the Housing Element, they clarify that a local agency may identify an ADU or JADU as an adequate site to satisfy RHNA housing needs. AB 671 specifically requires that Housing Elements include a plan to incentivize and promote the creation of ADUs that can offer affordable rents for very-low, low-, or moderate-income households.

- Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing (AB 686) – All Housing Elements adopted on or after January 1, 2021, must contain an Assessment of Fair Housing (AFH) prepared in accordance with HCD program guidance, an analysis of the Adequate Sites Inventory, a matrix of identified contributing factors to fair housing issues, and a program of actions that promote and affirmatively further fair housing opportunities throughout the community.
- No Net Loss (SB 166) – As jurisdictions make decisions regarding zoning and land use, and as development occurs, jurisdictions must have a program to assess their ability to accommodate new housing on the remaining sites in their Housing Element site inventories. A jurisdiction must add adequate sites if land use decisions or development results in a shortfall of sufficient sites to accommodate its remaining housing need for each income category.
- Replacement housing (Gov. Code § 65583.2 subd. (g)(3)) – A program for a policy requiring developers provide replacement units when occupied by, or deed restricted to lower-income households within the last 5 years, are converted or demolished
- Site Inventory (SB 6, AB 1397, AB 1486, AB 686, AB 725) – The Housing Element establishes a jurisdiction's strategy to plan for and facilitate the development of housing over the planning period by providing an inventory of land adequately zoned or planned to be zoned for housing and programs to implement the strategy. These laws modified the content of the site inventory, including new analyses for capacity calculations, infrastructure requirements, suitability of non-vacant sites, size of site and density requirements, location requirements, sites identified in the previous Housing Element and rezone program requirements, among others.
- Emergency shelters and other emergency housing (AB 101, AB 2339) – provides that the sites identified for emergency shelters must be in residential areas or are otherwise suitable, thus prohibiting local governments from situating shelters in industrial zones or other areas disconnected from services. The law also seeks to ease constraints on the development of emergency shelters by requiring that any development standards applied to emergency shelters be "objective." AB 101 added navigation centers as a form of housing to help alleviate homelessness, and as a use by-right as specified.
- Supportive housing developments (AB 2162) – Mandate for local governments to allow qualifying permanent supportive housing developments as a by-right use in multifamily and mixed use zones.

3.0 Public Participation

Public participation is an important part of developing the City's Housing Element. The information obtained through public meetings, surveys, and stakeholder interviews provide insight to the true needs of the community. While the City's RHNA may be low, the actual need of the community may be much greater. Through the public participation process the City can identify what issues and obstacles people may be experiencing when trying to find housing. As part of the Housing Element update process, the City implemented the State's public participation requirements in Housing Element Law, set forth in Government Code Section 65583(c)(7), that jurisdictions "...shall make a diligent effort to achieve participation of all economic segments of the community in the development of the housing element."

The Housing Element was developed through the combined efforts of City staff, the Planning Commission, the City Council and the City's consultant. The inclusion of community stakeholders in the Housing Element public participation process helps ensure appropriate housing strategies are more efficiently and effectively evaluated, developed, and implemented. In an effort to involve all segments of the community, City staff and consultants developed a community outreach program including announcements on the City website, interviews, opportunity for housing element review and input at Planning Commission and City Council workshops and hearings. Public participation played a critical role in the formulation and refinement of the City's housing goals, policies, and programs. Public comments received during public meetings and workshops, as part of the community surveys, as written correspondence submitted to the City, etc. has been reviewed, and input that relates directly and is consistent with State housing element law and HCD requirements has been incorporated. The City's outreach efforts are summarized below.

City Council Meeting on August 8, 2022: This meeting was noticed on the City's website, email notification to interested parties was sent out, and flyers were distributed online with print copies posted at City Hall. The meeting presentation introduced the Housing Element and update process, provided an overview of the essential components of housing elements, reviewed the City's regional housing needs allocation (RHNA), identified recent legislation, discussed current City demographics, and gathered public input on housing needs and opportunities.

Public Workshop on October 12, 2022: This meeting was noticed on the City's website, email notification to interested parties was sent out, and flyers were distributed online with print copies posted at City Hall. The meeting was conducted in person with an option for attendees to participate virtually. The meeting presentation introduced the Housing Element and update process, provided an overview of the essential components of housing elements, identified recent legislation, and discussed current City demographics. Meeting participants were asked to: describe their experience seeking out housing, identify challenges and/or opportunities for housing, and to identify housing priorities in the City.

Verbal comments received during these two workshops are compiled and presented in Appendix E. Attendees of these meetings expressed the desire to preserve Mt. Shasta's village/small town feel and the natural amenities, and concern that denser residential development may change that. Many commenters expressed concern about the availability of jobs and housing affordability; the impact of short-term rentals and second homes on the availability of housing in the City. Also, concern was expressed regarding long-term rental properties being held vacant. Also, commenters noted that people are spending too much money for housing, leaving less money for food and other necessities regardless of tenure. Commenters also indicated that increasing costs for construction materials and labor contribute to increasing housing costs.

Commenters offered suggestions for improving affordability: adaptive reuse of the Crystal Geyser (a former water bottling plant that is outside City limits) and Roseburg Landing (former lumber mill property owned by the City) properties; allowances for tiny house villages; community land trusts; building regulations that allow for alternative sustainable and more affordability construction materials and techniques. The City considered these comments and Program HO-6.1.1 was updated to include "the City will consider options for building regulations that allow the use of alternative building materials and construction methods, within the City's legal authority, that demonstrate energy conservation and sustainability while protecting the public health, safety, and welfare."

Community Survey: From October 12, 2022 until November 15, 2022, an anonymous community survey was released to solicit input on housing needs and concerns. The survey was made available online using a platform, SurveyMonkey™, is optimized for mobile devices. Paper copies of the survey were also available at City Hall. The City published regular reminders on their website and on their NextDoor™ page to encourage community participation. One hundred ninety-nine (199) surveys were completed. All economic segments of the community, including lower income households, participated in the community survey with 20.6% indicating their household income was under $30,000. The complete results are contained in Appendix E, and Table 1-1 below provides a summary of the survey results.

Shasta considers drafting Goals, Policies, and Programs for the Housing Element Update?”. Table 1-2 below summarizes the common themes and topics expressed in the 149 responses provided.

Public Comments Received:

After the draft housing element was completed, it was posted on City's website and the www.siskiyou-housing.com/mt-shasta/ website. To notify residents and stakeholders of the availability of the Public Review Draft and request public comments, the City sent out an email notice to interested individuals and stakeholders on April 5, 2023, and posted an announcement on their NextDoor.com page. The Mt. Shasta Planning Commission held two public meetings, April 18, 2023 and May 16, 2023. At both public meetings, public comments were accepted. From April 6th to May 19th, the City received a total of eight comment letters from three Mt. Shasta residents. The comment letters are included in Appendix E of the Housing Element and were posted on the City webpage and the project webpage. The City revised the Public Review Draft two times in response to public comments, and Planning Commission input and direction. The first revised Public Review Draft of the Housing Element was released on May 10, 2023, and the second revised Public Review Draft was released May 17, 2023. Detailed responses to public comments including revisions incorporated into the housing element are described in the May 16th, 2023 Planning Commission (PC) staff report and are summarized below.

- Comment about Census and HUD income data, specifically Table A-13, in comparison is Area Median Income (AMI) in Table A-19. A detailed response to this comment was included in the 5/16/23 PC staff report clarifying the difference between household income information in Table A-13 and AMI limits in Table A-19. No edits to the draft housing element were needed.
- Comment about Table A-21 clarification on types of housing units. Definitions for single-detached, single-attached, and 2-4 units multifamily were added to Table A-21 as sourced from Housing Unit Survey Instructions, Department of Finance.
- Comment about Table A-53: site development standards for side yard setbacks. Confirmed site development standards shown in Table A-53 were consistent with the Mt. Shasta Municipal Code. No edits to the draft housing element were needed.
- Comment asking if the City can identify the recently approved Mountain Townhomes site as the City's RHNA site. Based on a review of available information, the City determined that the Mountain Townhomes site and development meets the criteria of Government Code Section 65583.2(c)(2)(C). As such, Section 1.0 of Appendix B was updated to identify the Mountain Townhomes site as the City's 6th cycle preferred RHNA site.
- Comment about designating the City-owned Roseburg property (aka the Landing) to meet the City's RHNA. At this time, the Roseburg property does not meet the statutory requirements to be designated a RHNA site because: at over 125 acres the Roseburg site is too big; the site does not currently have available public water and sewer, nor will the site have public water and sewer service within the 2023-2031 planning period of the Housing Element; and the site's zoning does not permit by-right residential development at a minimum density of 15 dwelling units per acre. Another constraint to identifying this property as a RHNA site is EPA and California Department of Toxic Substances deed restrictions in several areas of the property limiting the use of those areas for any type of housing. In the future the Roseburg property may meet all of the eligibility requirements allowing it to be identified as a RHNA site; however, at this time it does not meet those requirements and cannot be identified. No edits to the draft housing element were needed.
- Comment asking why the City only identified two potential sites to meet the RHNA and comments noting the presence of wetlands on a portion of the originally proposed RHNA sites. State housing element law imposes additional requirements when a site is used in consecutive housing elements (see Gov't Code Section 65582.3(c)). Therefore, the City's approach is to identify sufficient sites to meet the City's RHNA plus a 20 percent buffer. Although the presence of wetlands on the originally proposed RHNA site would not completely eliminate development potential, the city acknowledged the wetland information provided and as noted above, updated the preferred RHNA site shown in Appendix B Section 1.0 to identify the Mountain Townhomes site instead of the previously proposed sites.

The Mt. Shasta City Council held a public meeting on May 22, 2023, to obtain feedback and provide input on the Revised Public Review Draft Housing Element, including the incorporation of the comments summarized above, and give an opportunity for additional public to comment, only one individual spoke at that time. The commenter had the same comments as noted above about wetlands on the optional RHNA sites. Changes were incorporated in the draft as noted above, no additional edits to the draft housing element were needed. From May 23rd to June 6, 2023, the City spent ten business days incorporating input provided by the public, Planning Commission and City Council and the draft was submitted to HCD on June 7th, 2023. HCD conducted an initial review of Draft Housing Element and provided a letter with comments dated September 5th, 2023. In response to that review the City prepared a Revised Housing Element document that was posted for public review November 22, 2023.

Housing Element Webpage: In addition to posting meeting notices and Housing Element update information on the City's website, a webpage dedicated to the 2023-2031 Housing Element update was created and maintained (<https://www.siskiyou-housing.com/mt-shasta/>). This webpage provided easy access to project documents including Housing Element information and resources, meeting presentations, survey link and results, and ability to submit comments and sign up for notices through the contact form.

Stakeholder Interviews: In the late summer/early fall of 2022, the City reached out to a broad range of stakeholders including those working to address special needs housing issues, transitional and supportive housing needs, and community health issues in the City and the County. However, due to recent wildland fires, one in Weed and one near Yreka, only two stakeholders were available for an interview and complete the stakeholder survey. In Spring 2023, the City will be reinitiating stakeholder interviews.

The executive directors of Great Northern Services and the Mt. Shasta Community Resource Center were able to provide input, and their complete questionnaires are included Appendix E. The Project team asked interviewees about fair housing issues, and sought opinions on possible solutions to overcome constraints. The input the City has received as of this writing is incorporated into its AFFH analysis in Appendix A and housing plan, as well as into a variety of programs throughout the policies and programs (see Chapter 2). Many of the issues identified in the two interviews are similar to those expressed in the October 2022 community survey discussed above:

- There is a need for a variety and balance of housing types for the City's demographics.
- Need housing that is affordable for all incomes categories.
- Need to improve/centralize information available about housing programs including available rentals.
- Low inventory of housing, and limited availability of rental housing
- High rent/prices relative to the rest of Siskiyou County.
- Infrastructure is a constraint, including costs associated with connections and upgrades.
- Short term rentals are negatively affecting the availability of housing.
- Housing types that by design are less costly and quicker to build, e.g., permanent tiny homes, manufactured housing.
- Other issues affecting housing include fires, climate, drought.

- Displacement that was caused by recent fires.
- Aging infrastructure in older towns, and infrastructure replacement cost is high.

These needs identified to date are incorporated into this document through policies and programs that encourage a diverse range of housing types that can be accessed by individuals and families from all income levels, and remove governmental barriers to housing production.

Local and regional stakeholders identified during the Housing Element update process were:

- Dignity Health, Mercy Medical Center
- PSA 2 Area Agency on Aging
- Siskiyou County Domestic Violence & Crisis Center
- Cascade Small Business Development Ctr
- Danco
- Far Northern Regional Developmental Disabilities Center
- Great Northern Services

4.0 General Plan Consistency

This Housing Element is a stand-alone document intended to replace the City's previous Housing Element adopted in 2014. It is intended to become an integral part of the City's existing General Plan. Chapter, section, objective, and program numbering in this Housing Element conform to that of the Mt. Shasta General Plan (2008).

The California Government Code requires internal consistency among the various elements of a general plan. Section 65300.5 of the Government Code states that the general plan and the parts and elements thereof shall comprise an integrated and internally consistent and compatible statement of policies for the adopting agency. Section 65302 of the Government Code requires cities and counties to amend the safety and conservation element of the general plan to include analysis and policies regarding flood hazard and flood management information. The Federal Emergency Management Agency has not mapped floodplains in the Mt. Shasta planning area, with the exception of the shore of Lake Siskiyou and a narrow fringe area along the Sacramento River. This area is outside the City limits and will not constrain development within the city.

The City has reviewed the other adopted elements of the general plan and has determined that this element is consistent. The City will maintain this consistency as future general plan amendments are processed by evaluating proposed amendments for consistency with all elements of the general plan.

5.0 Analysis of the Previous Housing Element

An important aspect of the Housing Element is an evaluation of achievements of the implementation of programs included in the previously adopted Housing Element. The evaluation provides valuable information on the extent to which programs have been successful in achieving stated objectives and addressing local needs, and the extent to which these programs continue to be relevant in addressing current and future housing needs in Mt. Shasta. The evaluation also provides the basis for recommended modifications to programs and the establishment of new objectives in the Housing Element. Chapter 2 – Goals, Policies, and Programs contains the City’s objectives and programs for the past planning period (2014-2019).

6.0 Looking Ahead

During the 6th cycle planning period (2023 to 2031), the City will pursue opportunities for regional coordination to better address housing issues. While housing issues may not be uniform between Siskiyou County and the nine cities, Mt. Shasta believes there are likely more shared issues and solutions as many housing issues do not occur in isolation. Also, there are many small jurisdictions in Siskiyou county and bringing the resources to bear to prepare a legally sufficient housing element is overly burdensome, and for that reason prior to the start of the 7th cycle, the City would appreciate the Department of Housing and Community Development being willing to support the preparation of a regional housing element for the Siskiyou county region.

7.0 Key Definitions and Acronyms

Below are commonly used and important terms and acronyms used throughout the Housing Element, although this is a partial list. Please see Appendix D – Glossary for a comprehensive list.

AB. Assembly Bill. Oftentimes the year that the bill was signed into law follows in parathesis, e.g., AB 5 (2021).

Accessory Dwelling Unit (ADUs). Accessory dwelling units are also commonly referred to as secondary units, granny flats, or cottages, are small secondary small dwelling units located next to or attached to a single-family home.

Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing (AFFH). Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing, also known as Assembly Bill 686, is defined as “taking meaningful actions, in addition to combating discrimination, that overcome patterns of segregation and foster inclusive communities free from barriers that restrict access to opportunity based on protected characteristics.”

Affordability. Annual cost of housing includes mortgage, principal and interest payments as amortized over 25 years with a 25 percent down payment or gross rent that does not exceed 30 percent of gross annual household income or 30 percent of gross annual income devoted to rental housing, including utilities are defined as “affordable”.

American Community Survey (ACS). The American Community Survey is a demographics survey program conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau.

Area Median Income (AMI). This is the median, or middle point, of the incomes of every household in a given area. This means that half of the households in the area earn above the AMI and half of the households earn below it. AMI is a metric that is used to benchmark incomes levels. The income benchmark are calculated and adjusted based on family/household size.¹ Therefore, a single individual will have a lower income threshold than a family of four. Most federal and state housing programs qualify participant eligibility based on household income levels. To accomplish this, many State housing programs utilize the same benchmark of income data released by HCD. The State’s AMI may be used also to calculate affordable housing costs for applicable housing assistance programs. State law requires HCD to annually update the AMI limits based on HUD revisions to the Public Housing and Section 8 Income Limits, which HUD also updates annually or nearly so. In accordance with statutory provisions, HCD makes revisions to HUD’S Public Housing Section 8 Income Limits. One of those revisions is, “if necessary, increase a county’s area median income to equal California’s non-metropolitan median income”.² The non-metropolitan median income is determined by HUD, and in 2022 it was $80,300 for California. HCD applied HUD’s on-metropolitan income to Siskiyou county for 2022, resulting in an AMI benchmark of $80,300 for a family of four.

At-Risk Housing. Applies to existing subsidized affordable rental housing units, especially federally subsidized developments, that are threatened with conversion to market rents because of termination of use restrictions, due to expiration or non-renewal of subsidy arrangements.

By-Right. The City’s review of the owner-occupied or multifamily residential use may not require a conditional use permit, planned unit development permit, or other discretionary local government review or approval that would constitute a “project” for purposes of Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code. Any subdivision of the sites shall be subject to all laws, including, but not limited to, the City’s ordinance implementing the Subdivision Map Act. A City ordinance may provide that “use by right” does not exempt the use from design review. However, that design review shall not constitute a “project” for purposes of Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code. [Reference Government Code section 65583.2 (i)]

Comprehensive Housing Affordability Strategy (CHAS). Each year, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) receives custom tabulations of American Community Survey (ACS) data from the U.S. Census Bureau. These data, known as the “CHAS” data, demonstrate the extent of housing problems and housing needs, particularly for low income households.

Density. This refers to the number of housing units on a unit of land (e.g., ten units per acre).

Disability. As used in Appendix A, Needs Assessment, the 2020 American Community Survey (ACS) and Puerto Rico Community Survey 2020 Subject Definitions, are used. Disability is defined as the product of interactions among individuals' bodies; their physical, emotional, and mental health; and the physical and social environment in which they live, work, or play.

Dwelling Unit. Any residential structure, whether or not attached to real property, including condominium and cooperative units and mobile or manufactured homes. It includes both one-to-four-family and multifamily structures. Vacation or second homes and rental properties are also included.

Emergency Shelter. Housing with minimal supportive services for persons experiencing homelessness and occupancy is limited to six months or less. No individual or household may be denied emergency housing because of inability to pay. Emergency shelter includes other interim housing interventions, including but not limited to, a navigation center, bridge housing, and respite or recuperative care. [Government Code Sections 65582(d) and 65583(a), and Health and Safety Code Section 50801]

Extremely Low Income (ELI) Households. Extremely low income is a subset of very low-income households, and is defined as 30 percent (or less) of the county area median income.

Gov't Code, Gov. Code, or GC. The Government Code of the State of California.

Household. A household is made up of all persons living in a dwelling unit whether or not they are related by blood, birth, or marriage.

HUD. The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development is cabinet level department of the federal government that oversees program and funding for affordable housing laws, development, and federally funded financial assistance.

Income Categories. The federal and state governments require that local jurisdictions consider the housing needs of households in various "income categories." Income categories are determined by the median household income at the local level.

Junior Accessory Dwelling Unit. A junior accessory dwelling unit (JADU) means a housing unit that is no more than 500 square feet in size and contained entirely within an existing single-family structure. A JADU may include separate sanitation facilities, or may share sanitation facilities with the existing structure. (Reference: Gov. Code § 65852.22(g)(1).)

Low Income (LI) Households. Low income households are defined as households with incomes between 50 percent and 80 percent of the area median household income.

Median Income. Each year, the federal government calculates the median income for communities across the country to use as guidelines for federal housing programs. Area median incomes are set according to family size.

Moderate Income Households. Moderate-income households are defined as households with incomes between 80 percent and 120 percent of the county median.

Mt. Shasta Municipal Code (MSMC). Pursuant to the California Government Code, the adopted Mt. Shasta Municipal Code is prepared by the City Clerk and City Attorney of the City of Mt. Shasta, and as published by the City of Mt. Shasta.

Multifamily Dwelling. A structure containing two or more dwelling units for the use of individual households; an apartment or condominium building is an example of this dwelling unit type.

Regional Housing Needs Assessment (RHNA). A determination by a council of governments (COG) (or by the California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) of the existing and projected need for housing within a region. The RHNA numerically allocates the future housing need by household income group for each locality within the region. This housing allocation must be reflected in the locality's housing element of the general plan.

SB. Senate Bill. Oftentimes the year that the bill was signed into law follows in parathesis, e.g., SB 10 (2021)

The California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD). This department within the California Business, Consumer Services, and Housing Agency “helps to provide stable, safe homes affordable to veterans, seniors, young families, farm workers, people with disabilities, and individuals and families experiencing homelessness”. HCD is responsible for reviewing and approving all Housing Elements in the state.

Very Low Income (VLI) Households. Very low-income households are defined as households with incomes less than 50 percent of the median income.

Chapter 2 – Goals, Policies, and Implementation Programs

This chapter of the Housing Element contains the City’s goals and policies, and the proposed strategy to implement the City’s housing goals and policies. The objective of the housing programs are to address the housing needs, the constraints to housing production, and the contributing factors to fair housing that are identified in Appendix A. Available funding resources for housing are discussed in Appendix C and are integrated into City’s programs when applicable. Each proposed program contains a description of the intended action, an explanation of the responsible agency, possible sources of funding (if applicable), the time frame during which the program would take effect, and anticipated results. Whenever possible, the anticipated results have been expressed in quantified terms.

According to the Governor’s Office of Planning and Research (Appendix E, State General Plan Guidelines, accessed February 1, 2023), a goal is an ideal future end related to the public health, safety, or general welfare. A goal is a general expression of community values and, therefore, may be abstract in nature. Consequently, a goal is generally not quantifiable or time dependent. A policy is a specific statement that guides decision-making. It indicates a commitment of the local legislative body to a particular course of action. A policy is based on and helps implement a general plan’s vision. A policy is carried out by implementation measures. An implementation measure is an action, procedure, program, plan, or technique used to carry out a Housing Element goal and policy.

Required Program Components

To make adequate provision for the housing needs of people all income levels, to comply with State housing element a jurisdiction must, at a minimum, identify programs that do all of the following:

- Identify adequate sites, with appropriate zoning and development standards and services to accommodate the locality’s share of the regional housing needs for each income level.
- Assist in the development of adequate housing to meet the needs of extremely low-, very low-, low-, and moderate-income households.
- Address and, where possible, remove governmental constraints to the maintenance, improvement, and development of housing, including housing for people at all income levels, as well as housing for people with disabilities.
- Conserve and improve the condition of the existing affordable-housing stock.
- Preserve assisted housing developments at-risk of conversion to market-rate.
- Promote equal housing opportunities for all people, regardless of race, religion, sex, marital status, ancestry, national origin, color, familial status, or disability.
- Explicitly address, combat, and relieve disparities resulting from past and current patterns of segregation to foster more inclusive communities, address disparities in housing needs and access to opportunity, and foster inclusive communities.

For each program, the jurisdiction must identify a schedule of actions during the planning period, the agencies and officials responsible for implementation, and identification of funding sources to implement the program. Appropriate grant programs that will be applied can be identified as a funding source.

To affirmatively further fair housing, jurisdictions must establish goals, policies, and actions based on the identified contributing factors, and the priority of those factors. Government Code section 8899.50 requires “meaningful actions” well beyond combating discrimination to overcome patterns of segregation and foster inclusive communities. These actions, as a whole, must:

- Address significant disparities in housing needs and in access to opportunity;
- Replace segregated living patterns with truly integrated and balanced living patterns;
- Transform racially and ethnically concentrated areas of poverty into areas of opportunity; and
- Foster and maintain compliance with civil rights and fair housing laws, to address Mt. Shasta’s fair housing issues and the contributing factors.

The identified contributing factors are prioritized in Appendix A. Table A-68, Goal HO-7, contains Mt. Shasta’s AFFH action plan to address the identified contributing factors to overcome identified patterns of segregation and affirmatively further fair housing.

The Goals of the Housing Element and the number of Policies and Programs within each Goal are as follows:

- GOAL HO-1 - Provide Adequate Sites
- GOAL HO-2 - Ensure the Availability of a Variety of Housing Types
- GOAL HO-3 - Conserve, Rehabilitate, and Enhance the Condition of the Existing Housing Stock and Residential Neighborhoods.
- GOAL HO-4 - Facilitate the Provision of Housing Suited to Persons with Special Needs
- GOAL HO-5 - Encourage and Support the Development of Affordable Housing
- GOAL HO-6 - Encourage Sustainable Housing Development and Energy Conservation
- GOAL HO-7 - Promote Equal and Fair Housing Opportunities for All People

Chapter 3 – Analysis of Previous Housing Element

Housing elements must report the progress and effectiveness of the previous housing element. Section 65588, subdivision (a), of the Government Code requires:

- Progress in implementation – A description of the actual results or outcomes of the previous element’s goals, objectives, policies, and programs (e.g., what happened).
- Effectiveness of the element – For each program, include an analysis comparing the differences between what was projected or planned in the element and what was achieved.
- Appropriateness of goals, objectives, policies, and programs –A description of how the goals, objectives, policies, and programs in the updated element are being changed or adjusted to incorporate what has been learned from the results of the previous element. (e.g., continued, modified, or deleted.)
- Special needs populations – Provide a description of how past programs were effective in addressing the housing needs of the special populations. This analysis can be done as part of describing the effectiveness of the program pursuant to Government Code Section 65588, subparagraph (a)(2) if the jurisdiction has multiple programs to specifically address housing needs of special needs populations or if specific programs were not included, provide a summary of the cumulative results of the programs in addressing the housing need terms of units or services by special need group.

2014-2019 Housing Element Programs

An important aspect of the Housing Element is an evaluation of achievements under the implementation programs included in the previously adopted Housing Element. The evaluation provides valuable information on the extent to which programs have been successful in achieving stated objectives and addressing local needs and to which these programs continue to be relevant in addressing current and future housing needs in Mt. Shasta. The evaluation also provides the basis for recommended modifications to programs and the establishment of new objectives in the Housing Element. While many of the City’s former programs were continued or modified in this update, some were removed due to being successfully implemented and others were added to respond to changes in state law and local conditions.

Many of the programs included in the prior Housing Element are being continued, although many program have been modified to comply with State law, to improve effectiveness for the current cycle, or to reduce redundancy. The table below provides a summary of each program, its progress, and status for the current update.

Implementation Program	Progress/Effectiveness	Applicability in the 2023-2031 Housing Element
Program HO-1.2.1: Every year, as part of the annual Housing Element review, the City shall review the vacant land inventory with the objective of ensuring the City can accommodate a variety of housing types. If a deficiency is found, the City shall take steps to change the General Plan and zoning as needed to increase the amount of available land. The City shall make the inventory available to the public, especially the development community, for their information and use. Timing: At annual review Responsibility: Planning Commission Funding: General Fund	Progress: The City continues to maintain a list of the available vacant land in the city that is appropriate to meet its share of regional housing needs. Additionally, the City is the early stages of exploring housing development options to redevelop a legacy industrial property, referred to as the Roseburg property, that is now City-owned. This is currently in progress and will assist in the production of affordable housing in the city. Effectiveness: City staff reports on the Housing Element progress on an annual basis to the Planning Commission; this includes an update on the land inventory. The City receives development requests annually and receives input from interested individuals.	Continue and modify as per Program HO-1.2.1 and Program HO-1.2.2 that obligates the City to implement No Net Loss on a project by project basis. Program HE-1.2.2 calls on the City to annually review the vacant land inventory to ensure adequacy of sites suitable for a variety of residential development.
Program HO-1.3.1: The City shall track and review changes in housing law to determine possible need for revisions in related General Plan policies and programs. Timing: Every five years upon revision of the Housing Element. Next review to be conducted in 2019. Responsibility: Planning Commission Funding: General Fund	Progress: In Spring 2022: The City initiated the 6th cycle housing update. Mt. This will include the recommended general plan and municipal code updates.	Program HO-1.3.1(4) commits the City to reporting on legislative updates to Government Codes Sections 65913.4 and 65915 that trigger the need for local amendments to the Mt. Shasta Municipal Code.
